

Linen

Restaurant linen

CLS acknowledges that quality is the most important issue when selecting table linen.

We provide a range of high-quality table linen that has been proven over time to meet our customers' needs in every way.

We understand that customers' needs for different sizes, colours and quantities of linen can change, sometimes frequently, and pride ourselves on our ability to respond to clients' altered requirements.

Variations to stock holdings can be effected within 48 hours.

Bed linen

Quality bedding

We offer a full range of high-quality bed linen and towels in a wide range of sizes and styles. Bed linen is made from the very best fabrics, and our generous sizing policy ensures good presentation and a comfortable fit.

Towelling range

Towelling items include high-quality 100% cotton hand towels, bath mats, leisure towels, bathrobes and face cloths, all selected to the highest standard for drying efficiency.

Quality and quantity

We can supply up to three times the weekly requirements of a customer, avoiding the risk of shortages, and are able to respond quickly to requests for variations in stock requirements. We undertake to supply increases to standard linen items at 48 hours' notice to ensure that our customers hold adequate stock at all times.

Listening to our customers

Every care is taken to ensure that feedback from our customers is analysed and their views acted upon to create a range of products tailored to meet our clients' changing needs.
